

My Dad

Have you ever had a family member that you think should get an award? I do. I think my dad should have a "Best Dad" award for being the man that I will become. My dad is the best cook you will ever find. He is also the hardest worker I ever seen. Most of all he is a motivator. His words are true to me.

In my opinion, my dad is the best cook in the world. He can make all kinds of great tastes out of spices, salt, pepper, and garlic. If you tasted his bar-b-que, I know you will be back for seconds and thirds. The taste of all his meals would knock your socks right off of your feet. Mmmmmmm good!

My dad is also a very hard worker at everything he does. He works all night until the morning. He works on the runways at Lambert Airport. He does this so the planes can land safe and smooth. He makes a lot of money for our family needs, and to put my oldest sister through college. My dad is a good man. He helps me with all my homework, and with my baseball and football skills.

My dad has a lot of good qualities, but I like him because he is a great motivation to my sister and me. He talks to me about not doing drugs and to stay focused on my education and playing football and baseball. My dad also influences me by everything he does. My dad is a great thinker too. He can make up an idea right off the bat. I want to be just like him when I grow up. I want to do all the things he's done.

Like I said I have the best dad in the whole entire world. If you have a family member in your family that you think deserves "A Best" award like I'm giving my dad, then make a little something for them and thank that person for being there.
